Ottawa Backlog over $60.0 Million, Standing Offer Contracts Exceed $100.0 Million

Toronto, Ontario, July 4, 2006 – Brainhunter Inc. (“Brainhunter” or the “Company”) (TSX:BH) is pleased to report that, according to statistics reported by the Ottawa Business Journal (“OBJ”) in May 2006, Brainhunter has achieved the status of the 6th largest provider of IT Services in Ottawa, which increases to 4th largest with the acquisition of AJJA Information Technology Consultants Inc. (“AJJA”) in October, 2005. The three largest are IBM, CGI and EDS.

During the past three-years, Brainhunter has made three acquisitions in the Ottawa area. Brainhunter’s Ottawa office is expected to generate over $75.0 million of sales for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2006. Committed Backlog is in excess of $60.0 million and the value of Standing Offer Contracts and Supply arrangement vehicles exceed $100.0 million. In its current fiscal year, while successfully completing the integration of the AJJA acquisition, Brainhunter Ottawa has achieved strong organic growth and is positioned for continued strong growth in 2007. During the past six months, the value of standing offer contracts and supply arrangement vehicles won or renewed exceed $55Million.

Brainhunter’s Ottawa revenues are expected to represent approximately 40% of Brainhunter’s total results for the year ending September 30, 2006. Brainhunter is very committed to the Ottawa Marketplace and views Ottawa as a substantial growth opportunity from both an organic growth and acquisition perspective. One of Brainhunter’s key objectives for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2007 is to increase the size of the Ottawa business to over $100.0 million in sales.

States Perry Henningsen, Brainhunter’s Senior Vice President and General Manager for the Ottawa Region, “With the successful integration and amalgamation of three strong Ottawa consulting services organizations, Brainhunter Ottawa now has the capability to offer the full range of Brainhunter’s value-added services to our long standing client base. Additionally, we are in an excellent position to expand into new markets in the Ottawa area and to build on Brainhunter’s Technology Platform and Best Practices.”
