This trend is expected to continue, largely due to organic growth initiatives, synergies from acquisitions and cost rationalization initiatives.

Over the past three-years, Brainhunter has grown from one of the smallest companies in the industry to become one of the two largest Recruiting and Staffing Services and Solutions companies in Canada today. Brainhunter has consistently demonstrated steady growth in EBITDA with the exception of the Quarter ended September 30, 2005. The closing of the acquisitions in the fall of 2005 has given Brainhunter the critical mass of sales, which when combined with the Brainhunter Technology Platform, Job Board infrastructure and one of the largest professional databases in Canada, positions Brainhunter as the preeminent staffing services and solutions company in Canada today
